

Hayley Renyard

DESK TOP

Sources. Back ground

Desk top sources is to do with photos, maps, books and close.

Site photographs

The close are...
The colour of the grass. The Wiggly Walls, The earth works.

AERIAL photographs

Aerial photographs help you see more things.
Makes you see more etc.

CULTIVATION TERRACES

You can see marks. Like lines on the ground.

The ENCLOSURES are...
Were houses fell down.

Maps

maps are useful because tell you where you are and they can sometimes give you close, map show you what has happend in the past. Old Buildings. RELIEF

If you map the  Compare a old map with a new would have lots of differences.

SITE WORKS

Previous Archaeological Work.